“Tomich Hill Wines” is a family owned company. Established by the Tomich family with a desire to produce premium cool climate wines, their vineyard is located just north of the township of Woodside in the Adelaide Hills, South Australia.

Winemaker: John Tomich/Peter Leske

Grape Varieties: 100% Sauvignon Blanc

Region: 100% Adelaide Hills

Altitude: 400m above sea level

Colour: Pale straw

Bouquet: Opens with an incisive lemon aroma with tropical overtones.

Palate: The flavoursome palate is citrus focused with tropical fruit that together with the zesty acid back bone leads to a crisp finish.

Serve: Chilled with oysters and lemon garnish fish dishes or simply enjoy on a warm summer evening.
