2008 ADELAIDE HILLS SYRAH

“Tomich Hill Wines” is a family owned company. Established by the Tomich family with a desire to produce premium cool climate wines, their vineyard is located just north of the township of Woodside in the Adelaide Hills, South Australia.

2008 was a challenging year - we once again had a heat wave in January. Fortunately in the Adelaide Hills it was in early veraison and we were able to keep the water up to the vines and maintain fresh canopies. This was followed by four weeks of relatively cool weather which slowed ripening resulting in a good year indeed.

Winemaker: John Tomich/Peter Leske
Grape Varieties: 100% Syrah
Region: 100% Adelaide Hills

Colour: Dark cherry red.

Bouquet: Vibrant intense dark cherry leading to floral and dark berry aromas of mulberry and blackberry.

Palate: The mid palate sweetness with vibrant fruit is enhanced by firm tannins with excellent balance and length in a Rhone style.

Serve at room temperature with grilled and barbecued meats, roast duck, quail, venison or veal dishes.
